Selden, NY –Suffolk County Legislator Tom Muratore (R-Ronkonkoma) recently participated with local elected officials at the New York State Firefighters Championship parade, hosted by the Selden Fire Department. The parade was a conclusion to a weekend-long drill tournament and carnival at the Brookhaven Town Fireman's Park in Ridge. At the parade, firefighter Joe Parente was recognized for 50 years of service with the Selden Fire Department. "I am grateful to all of the departments for their commitment to public safety, and was happy to be a part of their celebration. I'd like to thank Chief Matteo from Selden Fire Department for hosting the event, as well as Joe Parente for half a century of dedication and service to the community."
